Ann Arbor, Mich., May 28, 1900.

Hon. Mayor and Members of the Common Council:

Gentlemen—Your board beg leave to submit their special report on the slaughter house district which was thoroughly inspected this past week.

Jacob Laubengayer's slaughter house; clean, hog-pen clean and having six hogs on hand.

L. C. Weinmann's slaughter house; clean, hog-pen clean and having 24 hogs on hand. A pile of rubbish was found on the premises which should be removed.

Mr. Zachman's slaughter house; clean, and pig-pen clean and no hogs on the premises.

J. F. Hoelzle's slaughter house; clean, pig-pen clean, and having 10 hogs on hand.

Geo. Spathelf's yard and slaughter house; clean, with 11 hogs on hand.

Chas. Vogel's; very offensive about this place and only one hog on hand.

Your board would also like to be advised as what procedure it should take to do away with the two stagment pools of water on South Ashley street, just south of Jefferson street, which is in a very bad condition and should be attended to at once.

Your board have made thirty-five inspections this month and nearly all of such nuisances inspected have been abated.

Your board would ask that an ordinance be made to prevent hogs being kept in the city limits, from April to October each year.

NELSON GARLINGHOUSE,
President.

H. B. DODSLEY, Inspector.
ERNEST A. CLARK,

MICHIGAN MILLING CO.'S SPECIAL REPORT.

To the Common Council:

Your special committee appointed with directions to investigate the conditions, and enter into negotiations with the Michigan Milling Company for an abandonment of all its water rights in Allen's Creek within the city of Ann Arbor.

We beg leave respectfully to submit the following report: We have had the matters referred to us under consideration, and a meeting with the Board of Directors of the said Milling Company and would recommend the following:

That the Common Council do offer the said Milling Company the sum of fourteen hundred and fifty dollars as part compensation for the perpetual abandonment of all its water rights in Allen's Creek and its tributaries, the money to be appropriated and payment made if all of said water rights shall be wholly abandoned within sixty days from this date.

This appropriation and payment, however, to be upon condition that the Michigan Milling Company and the Kyer Milling Company do forever release the city of Ann Arbor from all claims and demands to date. Also upon condition that the said Michigan Milling Company do convey to the city of Ann Arbor for public use and purposes all of its right, title and interest in and to the said Allen's Creek, and all its tributaries to the end that the city may make such valuable improvements in and to the said Allen's Creek as it may be advised without being required to respond in damage to any person therefor.
