

Cheboygan, Mich., Oct. 14, 1902.
Mayor Copeland,

Ann Arbor, Mich.

Dear Sir:—We have five thousand cords of 16-inch hemlock and pine short wood, which is worth seventy-five cents per cord F. O. B. cars here. It could be shipped to Ann Arbor, present rates, $26 per car. Large car will hold from 40 to 50 cords. This would make it cost about $1.25 to $1.35 per cord. By agreeing to ship so many cars the M. C. R. R. Co. ought to make a special rate.

Please present this letter at the special meeting of the council you have called for tomorrow night and let them take action on it.

Yours truly,
O. M. CLARK & SON.
