CITY OF ANN ARBOR, }
MAYOR'S OFFICE, Nov. 7, 1892. }

To the Honorable the Common Council:

GENTLEMEN—Mr. Thomas J. Keech having placed in my hands his resignation as a member of the Board of Public Works, I herewith transmit the same to your honorable body for your action as provided by the city charter. The resignation is self-explanatory, and is hereto annexed as a part of this communication. It is due to the associates of Mr. Keech upon the Board, as well as to myself, to say to you that we have labored long and earnestly for a reconsideration of the resignation, for we realize that the city is losing thereby one of the most faithful and competent of its unpaid servants. Our efforts having been fruitless, and presuming that your honorable body will accept the resignation as Mr. Keech requests, I have the honor to nominate, subject to your confirmation, Mr. Edward Treadwell as a member of the Board of Public Works for the unexpired term of Mr. Keech.

WILLIAM G. DOTY, Mayor.

ANN ARBOR, MICH., Oct. 27, 1892.

Hon. W. G. Doty, Mayor, Ann Arbor, Mich.:

DEAR SIR—Herewith I tender you my resignation as member of the Board of Public Works, the same to take immediate effect. I find it impossible any longer to give the necessary time, nor endure the annoyance connected with the position.

Thanking yourself, the Common Council, and the members of our Board for the courtesies received from all during the time that I have held the office, I remain,

Respectfully yours,

THOMAS J. KEECH.

Accepted and placed on file.
